✘ The Tie That Binds ✘

by Dale Jenkins

We're at that odd point in the year: the in-between. It's winter and we are in-between that cold of winter and the nicer spring weather. Football season is over but Easter and Lads-to-Leaders are not here. In most places it's hunker down time. In most places not much is happening this time of year - but this is not most places! The Young at Heart Banquet is coming Saturday (be sure to sign up) and Challenge Youth Conference (CYC) is just another week after that. It is perhaps our largest attended non-hosted event every year. Close to 100 of our folks will go to Pigeon Forge to join with 17,000 (that's what I'm hearing - wow) other Christians for this great spiritually recharging and fun time.

OK. Now to the really important news of the day! Today we welcome another new family. Corey and Stacey McGee have been married a little over a year and are expecting their first child due in May. Corey works with Affinion Group Gift Card Center and Stacey teaches Algebra 2 at Centennial High School. I know you'll want to welcome this young couple and get to know them.

Let's make today a marvelous day in every way - put your whole heart into worshipping God! I love you all.
