✠ The Tie That Binds ✠

by Dale Jenkins

Welcome. We are here today to worship God. We all have two lists we can look at: One is critical and negative, judges others and with an eye toward critique evaluates each action looking for mistakes. One remembers past hurts and is full of regret and revenge, one seems to enjoy unhappiness and finds delight in despair. The other is positive and rejoices in Him, examines self and with an eye toward praising Him evaluates each action, sees His glory. One remembers past forgiveness and is full of thanksgiving and grace. One emanates joy and finds delight in God. I wonder what it is like to God when we come together to worship Him? I wonder if He looks around and hurts that some are not here for no real reason? I wonder if His Heavenly heart hurts when some are considering their texts rather than His Text? I wonder if it gives Him pause that some don't praise Him? I wonder if His pulse quickens when some soul seeks His Will? Today you have two lists - choose wisely!

Remember that next Sunday is our Family Meeting. We will recognize new elders and deacons and we will rejoice about the future. Coming on October 8 we will have David Shannon, the new president at Freed-Hardeman with us. We've been trying to have David here for over 10 years and not until he began his new role did it work out for him to be here. We'll have more on that soon. God is good!
