✠ The Tie That Binds ✠

by Dale Jenkins

Good times ahead!

First off. Today we welcome Victoria Eschenbacher and her amazing little girl Isabelle (age 3). Victoria is a teacher at Heritage Middle School. She moved our way from Cookeville and we are excited she is here. I know you'll give her a great big SM welcome!

I couldn't be much more excited than I am about next Sunday. David Shannon will be with us. David has had an interest in Spring Meadows since we began. He is one of the best preachers you will EVER hear. But because of a very packed schedule he has not been able to be with us. He was named the new president of FHU a couple of months ago and as soon as the announcement was made I texted and said that now that you have some free Sunday's we want you. So, next Sunday is going to be rich. A part of the day (and it's a big one all day for our teens) is that he is bringing some folks with him and they will meet with our youth group and parents after services over lunch. Be here - you won't want to miss it.

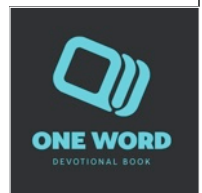

And, folks, it's October. That means Fall Festival (October 29) and Trunk R Treat (October 25).

We're happy to welcome new folks like Victoria and Isabelle BUT we want YOU to know we are happy you are here too!

TRUNK OR TREAT
